AUTHORITIES LOOKING UP PINCUS BROS.

Pincus Bros., erstwhile declared bankrupts of Monessen, are wanted. The accounts turned over to the Credit Men's Association are deficient and give indications that the bankrupt course pursued by them is not altogether on the square. The Pincus Bros.. it will be remembered, conducted a business on Schoonmaker avenue, known as "The Hub." The spokes were evidently gone when they started, but they held out for a couple of years, conducting "sales" every once in a while and doing a tin horn business. They generally had a man on the door step of the place to push people inside where they were induced to buy. It was a regular Russian—(Rush-in) — establishment. It is charged that they refused to meet honest obligations and rents were not paid. Evidently the ready cash was rammed down in the pockets and still the sale craze went on. Early in the fall they decided to pull off the biggest event in merchandising circles in the valley and they got out thousands of flaring dodgers and advertised a "profit smashing" event. Things were to be given away if they couldn't be sold. What they wanted was crowds. It was at this juncture that the wholesalers swooped down upon the place and closed it. Pincuses disappeared the same day just as though the earth had swallowed them up. They couldn't be found high or low. They paid nothing. Simply went away and no person knows whither they went or how the escape was made.

Now it comes to pass that about $18,000 worth of business has not been accounted for to the receivers and the Prosecution Bureau of the Credit Men's association is looking for the escaped disseminators of merchandise.

This is the result of only one of the recent bankrupt firms where crookedness has been detected and where prosecutions may follow. Undue advantage has been taken of the bankrupt law here recently and the only reason that some people have thus far escaped from peeping from behind bars is because creditors have met their loss rather than use the instrument at their command (the law) on criminals who seek this method of evading their honest obligations. But the District Court is getting wise and all that is necessary now is to report a case where there has been a crooked deal.

BIRTH DAY PARTY AT M. E. CHURCH

A most enjoyable and novel entertainment of last night was a "birthday party" held at the Methodist Episcopal church. The idea was that all be considered honor guests whose birth days occured between November and February, and the attendance was beyond the expectations of all. A most interesting musical and literary program was arranged and carried out successfully in every detail. "The country newspaper," in which ladies took the parts of editor. reporters etc., was most amusing and the parts were most exceptionally well portrayed. The roles of great and near great men, and particularly those aspiring for the presidenial chair, from Uncle Sam to Taft, Roosevelt and a few lesser lights were most naturally taken under the caption of "The Disrict School;" with the old fashioned literary society it was a crowning number and each gentleman fitted well into the niche arranged for him and the little literary finish of each was decidedly typical of the all absorbing national topic of the day. A nice lunch was served and all went home happy and satisfied.

Looks Very Much Like a Coal Strike

It looks very much now as though the coal strike scheduled for April first might prove a reality. Miners throughout the competitive district of the bituminus field are firm in their united declaration that unless they are granted an advance of 20 cents per ton on a "run of mine" basis and a seven hour day they will come out on strike, and the operators assert that conditions are such that it is utterly impossible for them to accede to the demand. They further say there should be a 10 cent deduction instead of an increase.

The rate being paid is 95 cents per ton, and this is the pivotal point at issue at the conference which began in Cleveland, O., yesterday between representatives of both sides.

It is asserted by the mine operaters that during two years past this 95 cent rate has entailed losses to them aggregating many thousands of dollars, and to grant the desired concession at this time would result disastrously to their interests.

The miners meet this with the assertion that they are unaminous in the conclusion that they cannot continue work at the present rate of pay, mainly from the fact that living—the necessaries of life—and other commodities are so extremely high in price, and unless their request is acceded to by their employers they will feel duty bound to bring their tools from the mines on Saturday March 30, and on the following Monday, April 1st, declare the great coal strike of 1912 in force over the states of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and throughout the bituminous portion of Pennsylvania.

Many fear this strike as being prolonged, but as the market is practically out of fuel, caused by the excessive hard winter it is thought and hoped that the misunderstanding between operators and miners will be soon settled in order to avoid serious results commercially. If they cannot come to an agreement steps will necessarily be taken looking toward arbitration and a speedy settlement and resumption of activities. It would be disastrous to the operators to hold out any length of time and allow products to flood their markets from noncompetive fields, which trade it would require a long time to get back. This strike coming, as it does, right at the beginning of summer could be stood much better by the miner than the operator, although the situation is to be deplored.

At the Cleveland conference the outcome looked rather unfavorable for the miner, as only two demands were acceded to, that no discrimination shall be made in the employment of men, and that a two year contract will be agreed to. All others, as to wages, hours, time of pays, etc., were ignored. Now a hope is placed in the result of the secret deliberations of the sub-scale committee into whose hands the matter has been placed. If there is a strike more than 400,060 men will be effected.

ROYAL WELSH LADIES CHOIR TO BE HERE

The Royal Welsh Ladies' Choir which will appear at the Opera hourse as a special attraction under the auspicea of the Monessen Lecture Course should prove one of the greatest attractions of the season. The company had an open date on their itinerary and when this was made known to the local lecture people the contract for their appearance here was immediately closed.

The prefix "Royal" to the name of the choir was conferred upon it by the late King Edward when he commanded the Choir to appear before him at Windsor Castle. The director of the Choir is Madame Hughes-Thomas an accomplished and noted musician. There are nineteen members in the choir, some of whom have been pupils of Madame Thomas since they were nine years of age. Tickets are now on sale at 50, 75 and $1.00. COUNCIL IN ADJOURNED SESSION

An adjourned session of Council with five of the nine members present was held last evening at which time the plans and specifications for the new bridge across Third street from Fourth to Rostraver on Reed avenue, were submitted by the consulting engineers on the work, Chester and Fleming of Pittsburgh.

The plans were gone over carefully by each of the councilmen present and were approved. The specifications were found to be all right and a motion was passed to have 100 copies of the same printed at an early date for distribution to the bidders and contractors. A motion was also passed for the engineers to insert in two of the standard engineering publications an advertisement for bids on the structure. All bids are to be in the hands of the proper authorities by 8 o'clock on April the 15 and are to be accompanied by a cerified check for $1,000.00.

The structure will be one of the most approved models of concrete bridges. It's length will be from end to end, 500 feet; the central span will be 150 feet in length and will be 105 feet above Third street. It will be paved with brick the same as the streets which it connects and will have concrete sidewalks with an iron curbing or guard at the edge. A railing 39 inches from the bridge flooring will be placed on both sides and an aperture of 5 inches is to be left between each rail so that the danger of the smallest child falling through is entirely eliminated. Third street traffic will not be hindered during the course of construction and the residents of the neighborhood will not be annoyed by any loud blasting, as this work will have to be done with small charges. A plain but ornamental street lamp will adorn the posts a each of the four corners of the bridge and a wide and convenient approach will be made at both ends.

Only daily paper published in Westmoreland county in the upper section of the Monongahela valley.

Daily the most flattering reports are heard about the candidacy of Hon. E. E. Robbins for congress in the Twenty-second district. Mr. Robbins is one of the cleanest and most capable men in the district. In politics he has always been fair and as a public official he has always been a dilligent and untiring worker for public good and at this time he is having practically clear sailing for the Republican nomination. In this section of the county no opposition is felt toward him and this feeling extends as far east as the Yough river. The West Newton Times Sun this week says of him:

"In view of his splendid service for the Yough, while a member of the House as well as almost incessantly during the intervening years, Mr. Robbins should be rewarded by the people of the Youghiogheny by gaccording him their hearty support in his present canvass for representative from the 22nd congressional district, the position he formerly occupied with so much dignity and honor, as well as credit to his large body of constituents. Col. Robbins is at this time the logical candidate. In him the people of the district may feel assured that their interests will be well conserved, and their rights ably defended. His nomination and election will indeed be an honor to the Twenty-second."

Monday morning the hotel men all over the county will hie themselves to Greensburg to appear before the court to show why they should be granted a privilege to sell intoxicants another year. So far as is known there are no remonstrances filed from Monessen and so far as outward semblances count there are no objections to any applicant for a renewal. Howerer it is felt generally that the court will have some pretty sound advice to administer. All over the country judges are getting stricter in granting licences and men engaged in the business must live up to the letter of the law. If more stringent measures were used by the courts there would not be so much antagonism to the liquor business.

There is no occasion at this time to fear hard times. The country generally is prosperous. The outlook was never better. Everything points to an increased business everywhere. Not even the presidential campaign is going to have any bad effect upon commerce or industry. A strike in England is not going to harm things in this country. But above all, we are not going to have a dull year, because the people of this country are preparing for a good year.

Children's public playgrounds were first established in Pittsburgh 16 years ago, when a company of women engaged supervisors for two grounds. This summer the city will maintain 25 public play grounds at an expense of $1,000,000. The project has been a success in every way. The moral and physical benefit to the children cannot be estimated.

Sea gulls are said to be flying along the Monongahela river. Hadn't heard of that before. Political gulls were about the only kind heretofore to be seen along this tream.

Lafollette, has won in North Dakota. Its a good thing he can win some place.

The packet Greendale is now the sole exponent of trade from Pittsburgh to Morgantown along the waters of the Monongahela, but it is understoon that as soon as spring trade opens others will ply the stream.

PEOPLES FORUM

This column is devoted to the expression of the opinion of our readers and in no wise denotes the paper's opinion on, or sympathy with, any question involved.

Editor Independent:—In your issue of yesterday your editorial places church base ball along with dancing and card playing and we think your argument rather unjust, as dancing and card playing have ever been classed as objectionable, deceptive and treacherous pastimes, while baseball stands in an entirely different category, being recognized as the most exhiliarating and manly of the manly sports. Naturally we would not think of permitting dancing or card playing in our churches as a diverson because the influences are decidedly harmful. But baseball was introduced us an auxiliary or helper to keep young members from straying into forbidden paths and keep their interest centered more on the church and its kindred work. True, the privilege can be abused, as can all others, but there it is conducted for the real good there is in it as a developer and to keep our younger members away from questionable amusements, we can but view it as a developer of good morals, and in this we are borne out by the following which appeared a few days ago in the public press.

Chcago, Ill., March 20.—Advocating play as a developer of morals, Dr. Allen Hoben, associate professor of homiletics in the University of Chicago, declares in an article printed in the Biblical World that baseball, properly played, takes precedence of the decalogue in the moral education of boys. "The decalogue itself," says he, "cannot complete with a properly directed game in enforcing the fair play principle. Physical competency attained in athletic games has its reaction upon every mental condition. A boy can get more ethical and religious training from a game of baseball, played right, than from sermons and Sunday s hool lessons."

Another article from high authority coming from New York advocating the placing of church paid advertising right on the sporting page along side of baseball news says: The churches are not perfect, but their faces are turned that way. Why not help lift them up? If you are not better perhaps they can help you. Let us get together for man's good, and God's glory." And this "get together for man's good and God's glory," idea is, or should be, in our mind, the prevailing idea, and this honest, square and fair, and harmless base ball play associated with church work, is a long stride in that direction.

A Church-Going Sport.

GRIM TRAGEDIES OF OCEAN

Many Vessels Abandoned at Sea That Are Constant Menace to Navigation.

There is a grimness about the brief news dispatch which states that the derelict destroyer Seneca, of the United States revenue cutter service, weighed anchor and steamed out of New York harbor to search for derelicts of the seven-day storm which ended recently. Vessels that have been abandoned at sea, unless deliberately destroyed, continue to be a menace to shipping for a long period following their abandonment. For many years it was customary for sea captains, on coming into port, to report such derelicts as they had observed during a voyage, and the government published charts in which the position of the reported derelicts was shown, in order that sailing masters might be on their guard against collision with them. There was at one time some talk of international co-operation in the task of clearing the sea of these floating ships, but nothing came of it, and the United States government finally took the matter up on its own account, being for a long time the only government which did so, and presumably it occupies that position to this day. The vessels designated as derelict destroyers are specially fitted out with dynamite and other means of destroying and sinking the floating menaces to navigation, and the significance of the departure of the Seneca lies in the fact that the storm of last week is supposed to have caused many wrecks off Hatteras and along the coast of the Carolinas.

HARD TO PAY THE TAXES

French Deputy Runs Afoul of Red Tape When He Tries to Get on Tax Roll.

Jean Javal, who was elected deputy of the Sens division of the Yonne department in France in 1910, bought a house in Sens just after the election.

Discovering a few days ago that he had never paid any taxes on the property he looked up the list and found that his name had never been placed there.

As no self-respecting socialist-radical republican deputy would care to avoid such an obligation, and not forgetting the weapon non-payment of taxes would give to his opponents in a future election, M. Javal wrote to the authorities asking to be inscribed on the list.

The letter was returned with the notification that his request could not be considered unless it was sent in on stamped paper, with a 60 centime (10-cent) stamp.

Violin Was a "Find."

Gaylord Yost, violinist, has a valuable violin which he acquired under interesting circumstances. His story of the "find" as told by himself follows:

"One day in Berlin, as I came out of one of the music stores I was stopped by a couple of gypsies. They had at least a half dozen violins caught up loosely by the necks. Some were stringless, cracked and dirty. They asked me if I wanted to buy a violin cheap and I replied that I was always looking for good violins. Meanwhile I had scanned the violins and I observed one with very artistic lines and workmanship, good varnish, but in bad repair. I asked him how much they wanted for that one and they replied 120 marks. Of course I could not try the violin in the street so I gave them my card and told them to call in the afternoon. As soon as I placed the bow on the strings I realized what it was. I finally got the violin for 79 marks. I guess it was cheap. Would I sell it? Well, hardly."

YOUR GRAY HAIRS QUICKLY VANISH

A Harmless Remedy, Made from Garden Sage, Restores Color to Gray Hair.

A feeling of sadness accompanies the discovery of the first gray hairs which unfortunately are looked upon as heralds of advancing age. Gray hair, however handsome it may be, makes a person look old. We all know the advantages of being young. Aside from the good impression a youthful appearance makes on others, simply knowing that you are "looking fit" gives one courage to undertake and accomplish things. So why suffer the handicap of looking old on account of gray hairs, when a simple remedy will give your hair youthful color and beauty in a few days' time?

Most people know that common garden sage acts as a color restorer and scalp tonic as well. Our grandmothers used a "Sage Tea" for keeping their hair dark, soft and luxuriant. In Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy we have an ideal preparation of Sage, combined with Sulphur and other valuable remedies for dandruff, itching scalp and thin, weak hair that is split at the ends or constantly coming out. A few applications of this valuable remedy will bring back the color, and in a short time it will remove every trace of dandruff and greatly improve the growth and appearance of the hair.

Get a fifty cent bottle from your druggist today, and notice the difference in your hair after a few days' treatment. All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented.

I want to tell all women about this cure—you, my reader, for yourself, your daughter, your mother, or your sister. I want to tell you how to cure yourselves at home without the help of a doctor. Men cannot understand women's sufferings. What we women know from experience, we know better than any doctor. I know that my home treatment is safe and sure cure for Leucorrhoea or Whitish discharges, Ulcerations, Displacement or Falling of the Womb, Profuse, Scanty or Painful Periods, Uterine or Ovarian Tumors, or Growths; also pains in head, back and bowels, bearing down feelings, nervousness, creeping feeling up the spine, melancholy, desire to cry, hot flashes, weariness, kidney and bladder troubles where caused by weaknesses peculiar to our sex.

I want to send you a complete ten day's treatment entirely free to prove to you that you can cure yourself at home, easily, quickly and surely. Remember, that, it will cost you nothing to give the treatment a complete trial: and if you wish to continue, it will cost you only about 15 cents a week or less than two cents a day. It will not interfere with your work or occupation. Just send me your name and address, tell me how you suffer if you wish, and I will send you the treatment for your case, entirely free, in plain wrapper, by return mail. I will also send you free of cost, my book—"WOMAN'S OWN MEDICAL ADVISER" with explanatory illustrations showing why women suffer, and how they can easily cure themselves at home. Among the Theatres

OLYMPIC

All this week at the Olympic theatre, Sig. Antonio Perrone will sing at each performance, one popular and one operatic number. A musical treat secured as an extra feature. 42-4t

The vaudeville bill at the Olympic theatre for this afternoon and evening is by far one of the best that has appeared at this playhouse since the opening. Gallagher and Wayne present their vaudeville company of ten artists in four vaudeville sketches and an amusing 'playlet entitled "Memories of By-gone Days," a scream from the start to the finish. The actions of the 'kids' in the old country school would make a sphinx laugh. The vaudeville acts presented are excellent and include the famous Pfeil sisters in a singing, dancing and acrobatic act that is about the best thing in it's line that has ever been here. All in all the bill should prove a big drawing card for the remaining four performances and in addition to the vaudeville program, two very interesting reels of pictures and the American press dispatches are shown.

"The Closed Bible," a stirring drama that has a lesson of great moral worth will be shown at the Olympic today in addition to "Timely Repentance" another interesting and entertainment at popular prices. 1t

OLYMPIC-SPECIAL

Also "A Spanish Dilemna," a story of the Spaniards and Mexicans in the beautiful and scenic tropical regions. Special orchestra music all the time. 1t

THE LUNA

Three good reels at the Luna on Monday. "Irene's Infatuation," "A Midget Sherlock Holmes" and others. The Luna, "Where the best people go." 1t

"A Midget Sherlock Holmes" at the Luna on Monday is an amusing comedy that will please all. Special music. 1t

News Notes of Society

A pink tea will be given Monday evening in the basement of the Christian church by the Golden Rule class. This is a class of very active young girls under the instruction of Mrs. Alice E. McKenney, and they promise all who honor them with their presence on Monday evening, along with 15 cents, a royal good time and a bounteous lunch. These girls are among the most active in the Sunday School, having held the "banner" continuously for attendance for more than six months with the exception of one Sunday, March 10, when it was wrested from them, but last Sunday, they being again in the lead carried the coveted prize proudly back into their own camp. Kindly remember the girls on Monday evening, as they and their teacher will be glad to welcome you. And remember, the expense will be only 15 cents for a good, big enjoyable lunch and an evening of social enjoyment.

The Woman's Literary Club of Monessen met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. O. MacDonald on McKee avenue and a large and gratifying attendance was present. A number of interesting papers and talks were made by Miss Carrie Lytle, Mrs. Steen, Mrs. C. S. Duvall and Mrs. MacDonald. Current events were the subjects taken by Miss Edith Bowes and Mrs. A. L. Arner, and a very interesting musical program was rendered by Miss McKean.

Mrs. A. R. Ney, entertained at bridge whist at her McKee avenue home last evening, the members of the Sixth street club. Five tables were used and a very pleasant evening was enjoyed by the guests. Near the close of the evening an excellent lunch was served by the hostess.

Theo. Roosevelt will not make a speech in Monessen next week but the Elk's Minstrels will hold forth at the Star Thursday and Friday. 45-2t

SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

How Mrs. Reed of Peoria, Ill., Escaped The Surgeon's Knife.

Peoria, Ill.—"I wish to let every one know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. For two years I suffered. The doctor said I had a tumor and the only remedy was the surgeon's knife. My mother bought me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and today I am a well and healthy woman. For months I suffered from inflammation, and your Sanative Wash relieved me. I am glad to tell anyone what your medicines have done for me. You can use my testimonial in any way you wish, and I will be glad to answer letters."—Mrs. CHRISTINA REED, 105 Mound St., Peoria, Ill.

Mrs. Lynch Also Avoided Operation.

Jessup, Pa.—"After the birth of my fourth child, I had severe organic inflammation. I would have such terrible pains that it did not seem as though I could stand it. This kept up for three long months, until two doctors decided that an operation was needed.

"Then one of my friends recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and after taking it for two months I was a well woman."—Mrs. JOSEPH A. LYNCH, Jessup, Pa.

Women who suffer from female ills should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, one of the most successful remedies the world has ever known, before submitting to a surgical operation.
